

Jupiter Exalted in Cancer

Record Date: 07/15/2025

I want to talk about Jupiter a little bit more today, because again we are still in the zodiac sign of Cancer until July 22.

Jupiter is exalted in cancer for an entire year.

This means that this entire year is a great opportunity for us to focus on some of these Jupiter qualities, such as abundance and maybe we have some ways to be more receptive to manifestations or desires that we want to manifest.

It can become a little cloudy sometimes when we are trying to be receptive to what we want to manifest.

Immediately by saying what I want to manifest is placing conditions on being receptive to what spirit will allow to flow through us.

I'm going to share my screen and we're briefly going to look at my natal chart.

Here we can see within the 12th house, Jupiter transit is within my Cancer and also we are in Cancer until July 22, so the Sun transit is in my first house.

Before I go any further, keep in mind that astrology is an earth-bound modality for us to allow us for self-empowerment and to remember who we are.

It is a tool that has a lot of symbols that we can suggest to our subconsciousness on maybe removing old beliefs, old ideas, old patterns, habits that no longer serve us, and so we can open up and be more receptive.

I say that in a way as a reminder for myself.

We are not static.

We are dynamic.

We will always be dynamic.

Energy is always in motion.

Astrology is a very powerful tool from what I believe that I have applied to myself that has helped me in so many ways, so I enjoy sharing what has worked for me.

My natal Jupiter is in the third house, Virgo.

This is my natal Jupiter and transit Jupiter.

There are no oppositions, actually, there is not a square, so my Jupiter right now is really enjoying this placement of Cancer and Virgo for this next year.

An opposition means that I need to seek a type of balance.

We can see that I have one, two, three, four oppositions right here with these other planetary energies within these Zodiac signs and astrological houses.

With Tarot, Cancer is assigned to Key 7.

We can notice that Jupiter is exalted and Jupiter is assigned to Key 12 (actually Key 14) and we have the Angel who is mixing the energies.

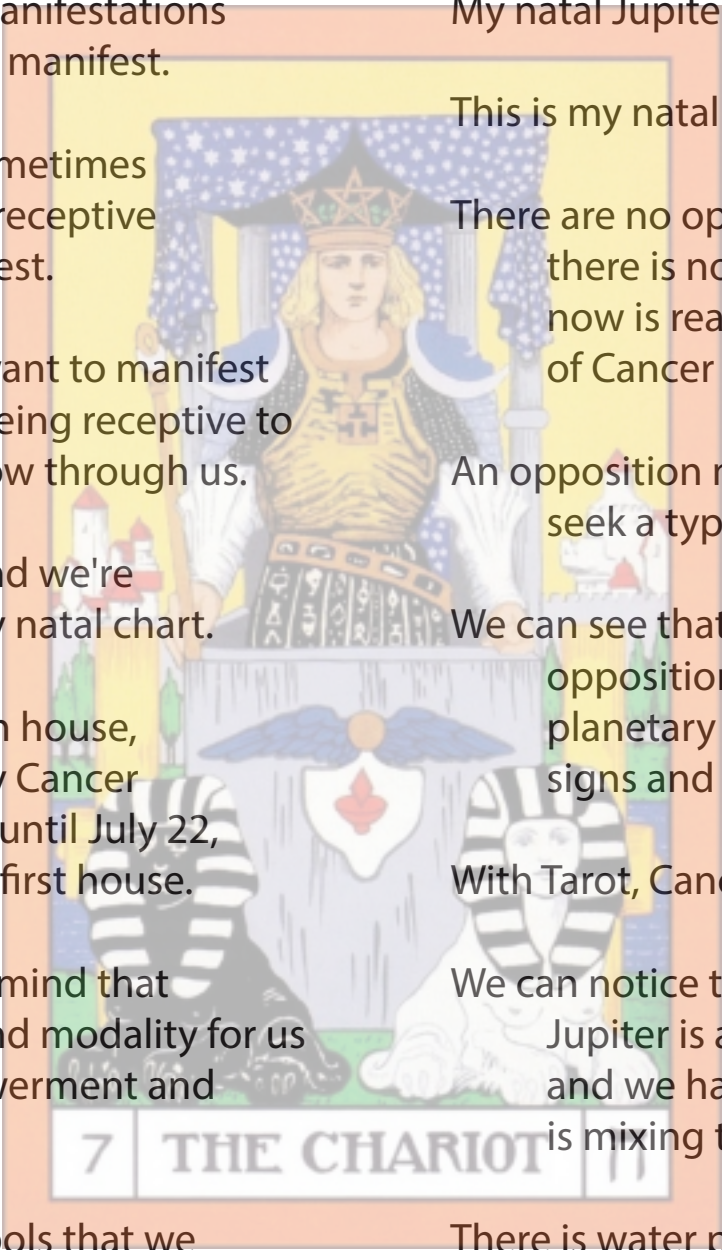

There is water pouring out of a vase.

He is holding fire.

There is the eagle, which is the fixed sign of Scorpio.

There is the brown lion for the fixed sign of Leo.

The Angel has one foot on Earth and one foot in water.

In essence, there is also a rainbow and this rainbow represents that it is actually called the Rainbow of Promise, that eventually we will all become to the degree where we can remember who we are, Divine Sparks of the Creator, the Christ Mind.

We will be able to acknowledge and remember that we are from the One Infinite Creator.

Back to Cancer, we can see that some of the qualities that I will experience with ease over this next year are that I will be more sensitive, romantic, patient, empathic, kind, devotion and loyalty, all the stuff that normally, maybe I would have to work a little bit harder or will not come as easy in some experiences.

Jupiter is going to be able to provide these qualities for me within this next year a little more easier.

Really the transit of Jupiter is helping all of humanity when we look at this through symbol.

Now for some of us, our natal chart, Jupiter is probably in a different zodiac signs and different houses and I'll touch on that in a minute.

Now, quality most needed for balance is control of the emotions, especially within this month.

I need to know that when I'm interacting with others, that they are going to reflect aspects of myself which I haven't yet identified and integrated.

Alright, all problems are gifts.

I need to have that perspective when these emotions are stirred up and if I react and lash out angry towards the other person, which is a reflection of me, then I'm actually angry at myself.

I may be carrying a past experience or maybe they are reflecting to me something that I am avoiding within myself.

Maybe there's a denial that I am implementing in that moment so that I can't truly and fully have that experience.

The only way that I'm going to be able to identify these aspects of myself that I'm in denial of is to acknowledge them, to contemplate on why I reacted that way, forgive myself, right?

I have to forgive myself.

Why would I need to forgive the other person?

The other person is actually me.

They are reflections.

Forgive myself so that I can release that emotion, which will create experiences of denial.

That is not me! That is them!

That is old ways of thinking.

We have to grow past these compulsions that arise out of our subconsciousness and light has shined on them and we say, Aha! I see it now.

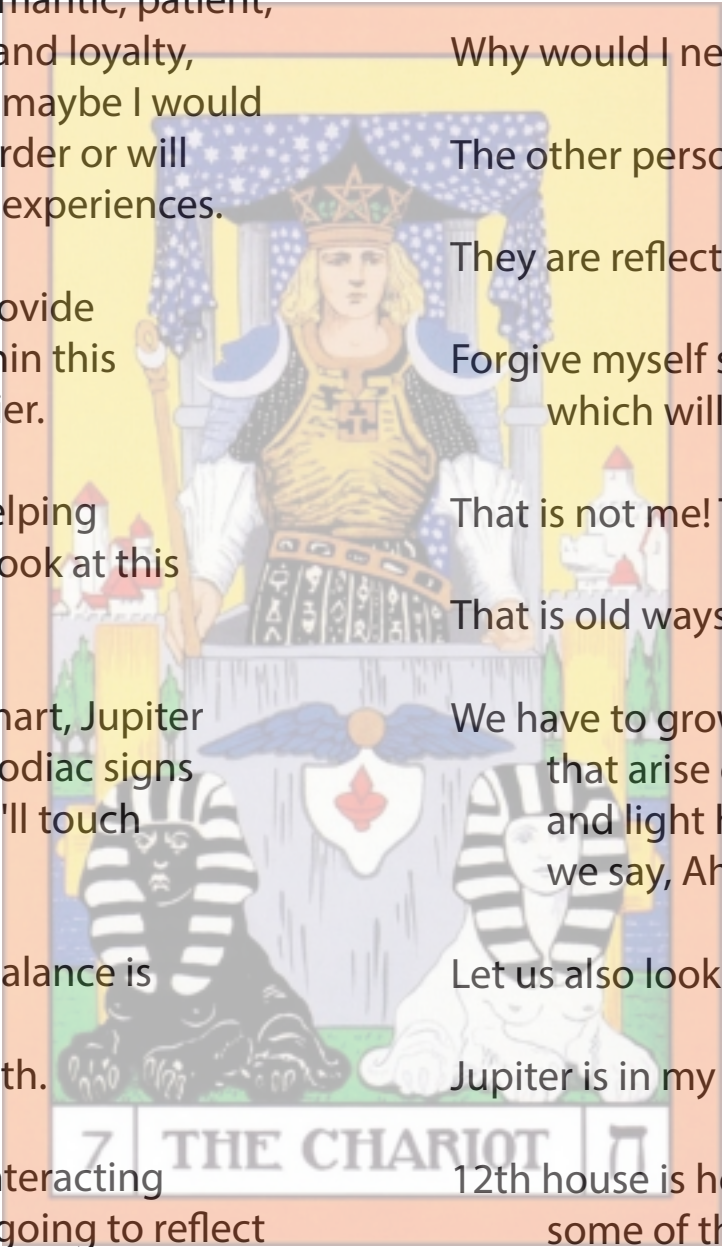

Let us also look at 12th house.

Jupiter is in my 12th house.

12th house is home of Pisces, some of the attributions of 12th house are oneness, wholeness, return to source, mercy, collective unconsciousness.

But the developments that I can really focus on are compassion, devotion and synthesis with all.

Those three developments are most prominent right now with transit Jupiter in the 12th house.

I can ask myself, 'How I can be more compassionate towards myself?' which will be out-pictured into the world and reflected back to me.

I can ask myself, 'How can I be more devoted to who I am?'

And who are we?

We are all Christ Consciousness beings, yet some of us are on a path of remembrance.

So I can be more devoted to who I really am a Christ Consciousness being and then synthesis with all is a development of acknowledging the Oneness, the All-ness.

And see at the bottom right here, the relationship we have with ourself determines the relationship we have with others.

Now, back to my astrology chart.

I'll quickly talk about the oppositions.

Okay, this way, maybe we all can look at our own astrology chart if we desire to and look for the symbols.

We can know that oppositions bring about opportunities.

Opportunities for what?

Opportunities for balance and harmony.

Oppositions are two planetary energies that are 180 degrees from each other.

They are playing tug of war with each other.

For example, my natal Sun planet in the seventh house is an opposition of my Cancer in the first house.

What this means is that the transit Sun in the water sign does not really like being in my natal Sun planet of Aquarius, an air sign.

I can reference seventh house astrological qualities with first house and then know that ultimately I want to be right here in the middle.

I will express my natural tendencies of Aquarian seventh house qualities, but I'm going to be challenged with the transit Sun in Cancer of the first house.

First house is the house of Aries.

It is a fire sign.

First house Aries, even though Cancer is in my first house, I can still reference the first house qualities and also the developments and attributions.

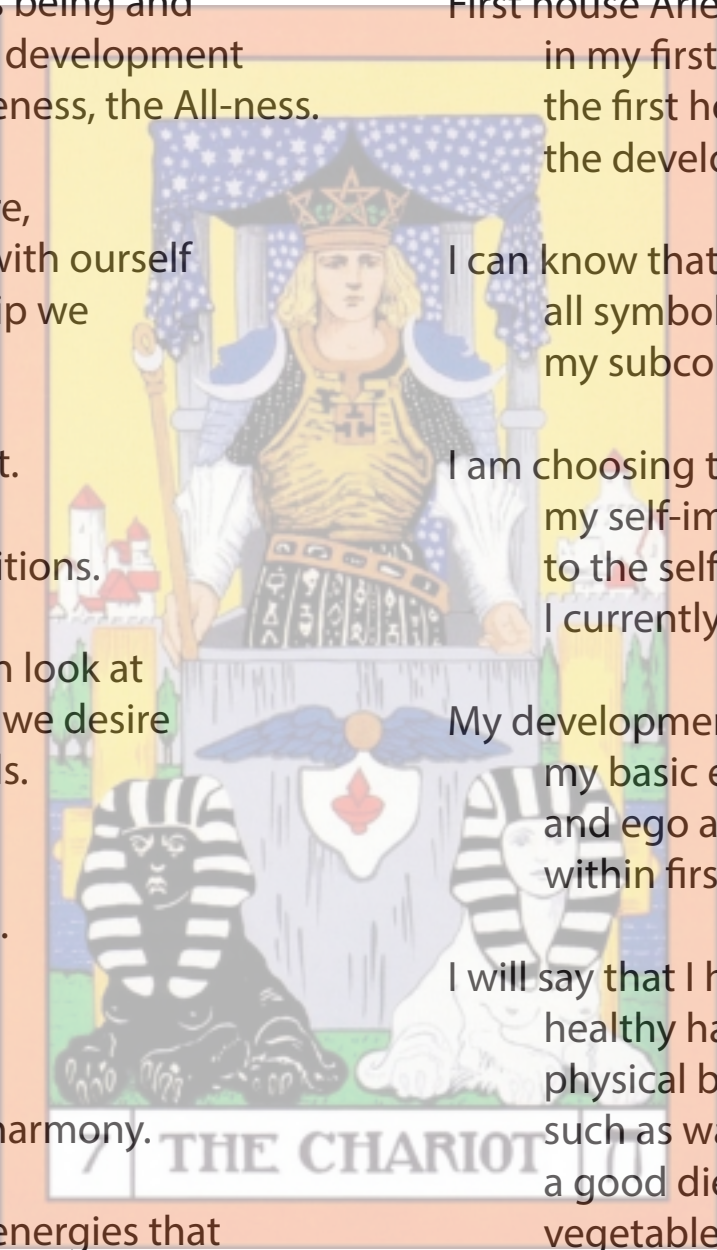

I can know that until July 22, now again, all symbol and suggestions to my subconsciousness.

I am choosing to pay attention to my self-image, to my self-confidence, to the self-awareness that I currently am experiencing.

My developments of physical body, my basic energy and instinct and ego are all concentrated within first house developments.

I will say that I have been creating healthy habits when it comes to physical body developments, such as walking every day in nature, a good diet, with more fruits and vegetables, drinking lots of water, all these things that in our daily life can make a big difference in the vibration we carry.

Let us also notice that my natal Moon in ninth house Pisces is going to experience transit Moon ninth house Pisces.

This alignment will bring about emotions that can we have an opposition of natal Jupiter, Mars, possibly even Saturn?

Yeah, either way, with a natal Mars and transit Mars, right here, transit Mars, my natal Mars, transit Moon and natal Moon.

Let's just know that I have my Mars force that is flowing through me that has the opportunity to react differently to my emotional states that may arise.

The subconsciousness will create compulsions, which are fueled by emotions.

I will have the opportunity to be able to see what they really are based on how I perceive myself and the outer world.

Remember, first house Aries, 'We don't see things as they are. We see them as we are.'

If I see myself as angry, then the world is going to reflect anger back at me.

I have one more thing I want to talk about and then I'll end the video.

This past week and a half, I have really been focusing on being receptive to space within myself.

I will release a video soon, within the next few days or a week at the most, why and how we can become receptive to the Divine Influx that flow through us.

What does this mean to be receptive?

Well, we have to have a relaxed mind in order to create space within our mind to be receptive.

The mind is full of denial, lack, all these beliefs that at one time have accumulated which need to be undone in order for us to be more receptive.

What can be difficult, see that is a condition, at times is when we are saying that we are receptive, we are saying Yes!, but really the mirrors reflecting back that we are not receptive.

There is the tricky part.

If I am saying I'm receptive to an experience, but I'm focusing on conditions and maybe denial, then I'm actually focusing on non-receptive.

So there is an active and passive mode here, which I will get into on the topic in the next video, but just know if, let me give an example.

Jupiter is my primary planetary energy that I'm focusing on right now.

If I tell myself that I am open to abundance, I want to be receptive to abundance, and then I begin to define what my abundance looks like or how I should receive my abundance of whatever it may be.

Maybe I want to be abundant in money, which is linked to wealth.

I know I am focusing on the abundance of wealth for whatever reason.

Wealth can be in the form of cash, money.

Wealth can be in the form of wisdom.

Wealth can be in the expression of love.

So I need to just tap into the frequency of abundance.

I create space within my mind to relax, right?

We have to have alone time to relax the mind by choice, train the mind to be silent, and that creates space, then we're able to become more receptive to the higher frequencies that we want to be receptive to, such as abundance.

The rest takes care of itself.

I am abundant period.

When I focus on the wants, the desires, the conditions, then the active principle will collapse and the passive mode will go dormant again, okay, it's very subtle, very subtle.

So I am abundant and then quiet the mind.

This concept is very tricky because as a human being, we are not use to expressing ourselves this way, but with higher awareness and expanding our consciousness, we slowly begin to develop these understandings which will reflect through us into the outward world, which will reflect back to us.

Alright. Thank you.

Remember, Jupiter is exalted until June of 2026.

Let us use that symbol and think about abundance.

The frequency of abundance and remind ourselves that we are abundant.

That the Divine Influx is all around us in all moments.
