

October 16 2025 Transits

Record Date: 10/16/2025

Hello, I want to talk about transit Jupiter in Cancer.

I already made a few videos earlier this year when Jupiter entered Cancer from Gemini, but it is important to know that Jupiter is exalted in Cancer which means now is a good time to focus on where Jupiter is within your chart because we can take advantage of the relationships with the other planets with their aspects.

With Jupiter exalted, we can work on our personal growth, family development, social development, and career development because Jupiter is going to be very supportive during this cycle of this year and up until June 2026.

I am not going to talk too much about Tarot, but I at least wanted to show that Key 10, Wheel of Fortune, Jupiter is assigned to this Tarot key.

The Hebrew letter Kaph is assigned to Key 10 and has the meaning of grasp.

Jupiter is all about abundance and expansion.

We are going to grasp the greater fortunes that Jupiter rains down on us, which is really all around us anyway with the divine influx.

It is just a matter of us consciously acknowledging that we are abundant in all moments.

With Key 7, The Chariot, the Zodiac sign Cancer is assigned to Key 7 and the Hebrew letter Chet, which means fence.

We build fences around our consciousness, we build, we create, we expand our awareness, and the Charioteer, he is receptive.

The Charioteer's rod is the same magic wand within Key 1, The Magician, but it is just a different symbol, different shape, but receptive to Divine Will.

He is victorious and the Sphinx are under control by his mind that has been trained.

We come here to train our mind and it is our mind that will try to fill in the gaps with what we call time, past, present and future, but there is only the Now.

Notice how the moon is on his shoulders.

There is a moon with a frown and a moon with a smile which are the moods.

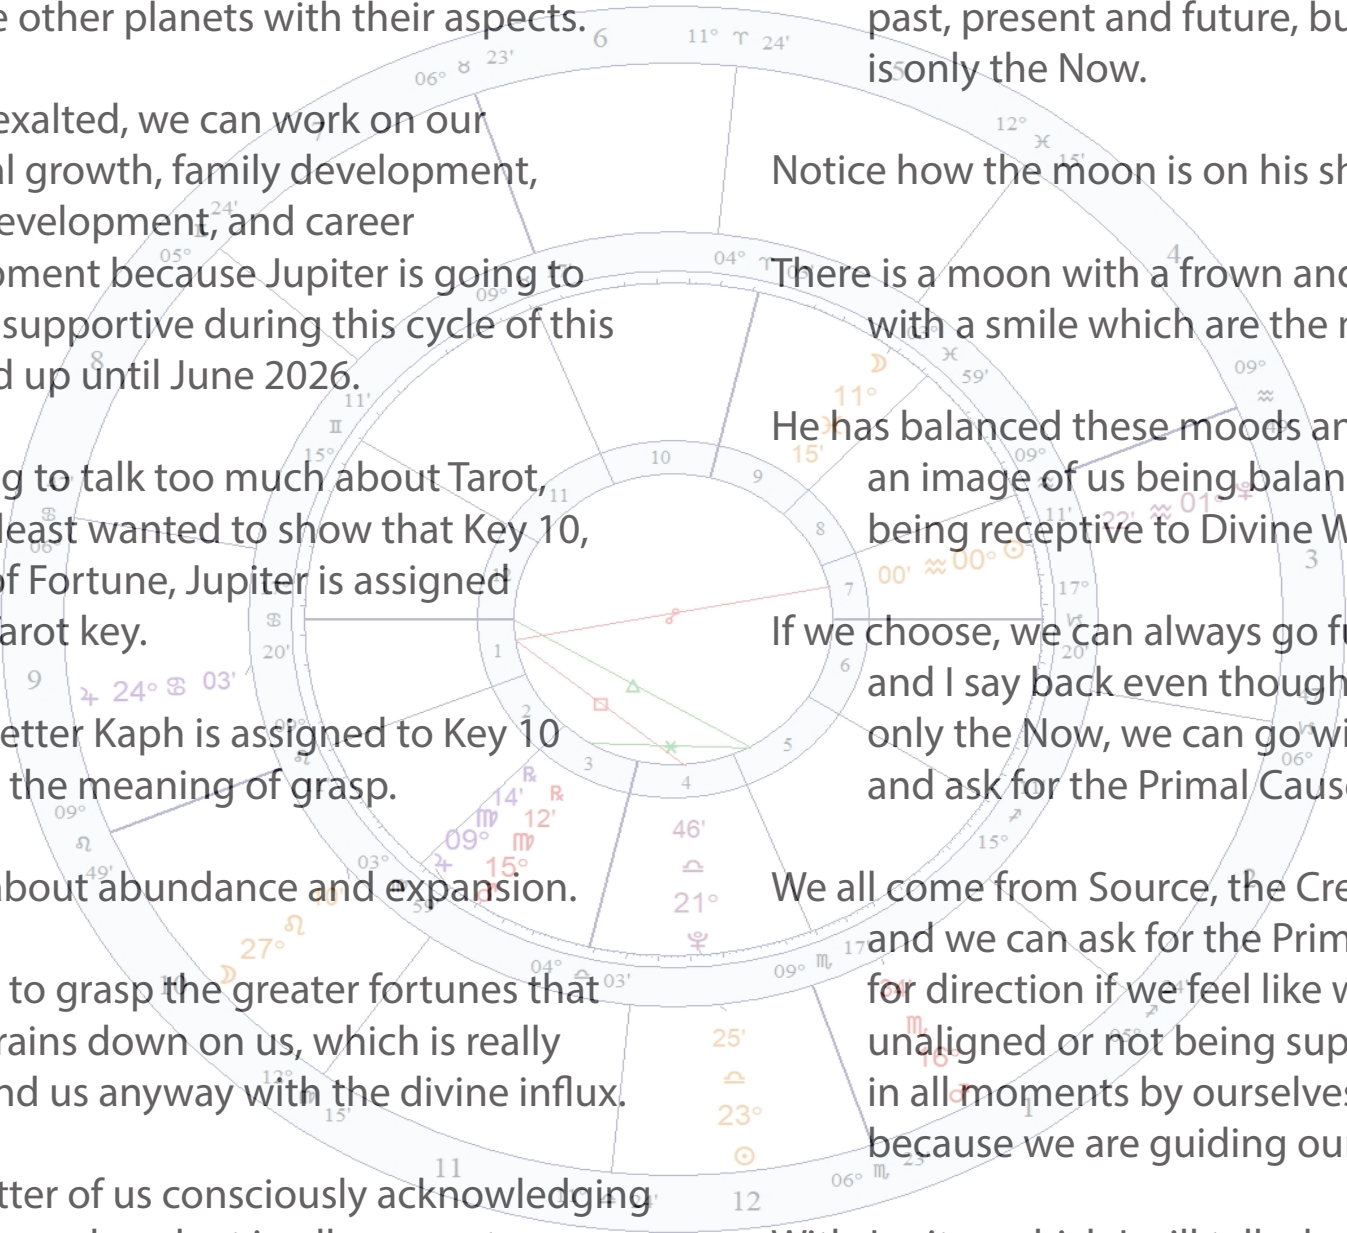

He has balanced these moods and this is an image of us being balanced and being receptive to Divine Will.

If we choose, we can always go further back, and I say back even though there is only the Now, we can go within and ask for the Primal Cause.

We all come from Source, the Creator, and we can ask for the Primal Cause for direction if we feel like we are unaligned or not being supported in all moments by ourselves because we are guiding ourself.

With Jupiter, which I will talk about in transits, Jupiter is going to have this influence of trying to gather from the outside such as materialism.

When we look at our Jupiter transit, instead of trying to get things and be somewhere all the time, we can turn that energy around and focus it on our inside.

We will expand the space within ourself.

Jupiter is a large planet and the energy center within us, our solar plexus, we can expand it.

When I seek on the outside, such as today, I took the time to make a juice that includes beet, spinach, celery, and kale.

Because my Moon, which is habits and past, will crave certain sensations, but I have to train my mind to do it differently.

I have done this for a while now, but I am trying to get back into the habit.

It is very easy, but the mind will work slower than the body even though the mind thinks fast, and if the body moves in this direction, eventually the mind is going to say, 'Well, I need to change,' and the change occurs.

The mind catches up with the body.

Let us get into astrology.

I am going to briefly talk about Jupiter and I will use my chart.

If anybody wants me to look at their Jupiter transit, just let me know and we can talk about it and I will make a recording.

This is my chart with the transits on the outside.

There is transit Jupiter and natal Jupiter, but there is a lot going on here with a lot of aspects, so I made another chart because I just wanted to show my natal chart with the transits on the outside for a snapshot for the subconscious.

I took out a lot of the aspects and planets and only left Jupiter, Mars, Sun, Moon, and Pluto.

Transit Jupiter is in my first house and I am a Cancer ascendant.

Jupiter is exalted in Cancer.

What is first house?

First house is the "I Am" house, the creation house, and this is how I present myself to others.

I have a Cancer first house so my Cancer qualities and characteristics are going to shine forth through me and out to the world and reflect off others.

We are all reflections of each other.

That is how we learn about ourselves, by seeing the different aspects of ourselves through other people, places and things.

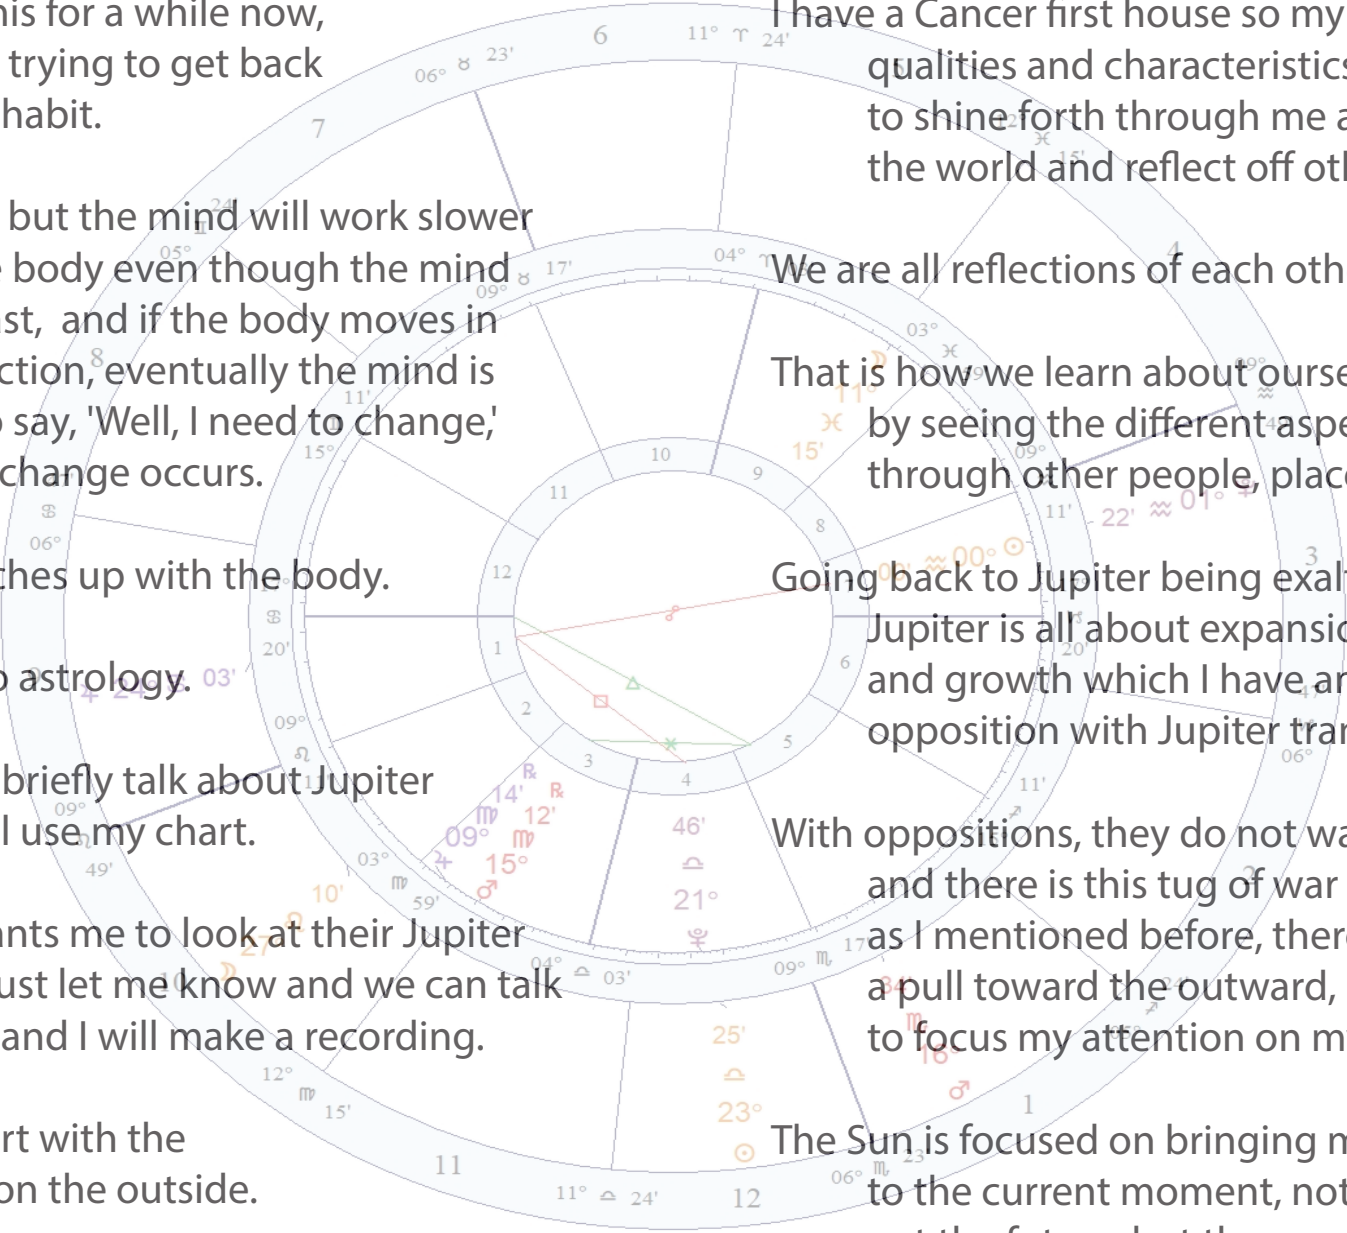

Going back to Jupiter being exalted, Jupiter is all about expansion and growth which I have an Sun opposition with Jupiter transit.

With oppositions, they do not want to share and there is this tug of war going on and as I mentioned before, there is going to be a pull toward the outward, but really I need to focus my attention on my inner needs.

The Sun is focused on bringing my awareness to the current moment, not the past, not the future, but the present moment and also brings clarity.

That is one reason why the symbol is a circle with a dot in it, be here now!

With the Jupiter opposition, I am going to scan the outside and this is with my first house, I actually will be tempted to go beyond and it span my limits, but I have to make it reasonable.

As a Cancer ascendant, my home life and private life definitely helps, so I will have this need to feel at home.

I can use my Jupiter transit and channel those energies into my home life, which I do and I catch myself doing that a lot by focusing on me and then that will ripple out with me focusing on my family and my home.

This is a good year and a good chance for success in my creative endeavors, for example, diet, like I already mentioned and I started playing a piano in July for the first time in my life and I have made a lot of progress in three months.

That is me taking this Jupiter influence and using it within the home to express my creativity and also to train my mind, to open my mind a little bit.

Whenever we do something different, we get off track a little bit, like move the body in this direction and we can even change our thoughts, then the mind is constantly trying to fill in the gaps with what it already knows because the mind wants to be in control.

The mind wants to pull from the past and say, 'this is what we are supposed to do to move forward,' and then from that gap that has been filled, then the mind will try to predict the future and how we move forward.

What if we do not do that?

A safe example is, 'I am going to play the piano,' and the mind freaks out because the mind has no experience in playing the piano.

A lot of times we will be inspired from the outside and see somebody else do it and that will change course a little bit, 'oh, they can play the piano, let me try to play the piano.'

I just happen to have a piano in the house and had the thought and the energy.

We are supposed to let the energy flow through us and then I made the choice to do this, but I remember thinking about Jupiter and let me do something different with my creativity.

Also know that with Jupiter, it is going to have that feeling of something on the outside is going to make me satisfied.

Devices on the outside, they are not the state of satisfaction.

Satisfaction comes from within, so we focus on the inner difficulties and explore solutions within ourself and this is where we find our satisfactions.

The answers are within.

With Jupiter trying to stretch beyond limits, I need to hold up a mirror and then focus on that Jupiter expansion to within myself, within Self.

I like to just say within Self because anytime I start saying myself and yourself, or you and me, there is a little bit of degree of separation, which is fine, but we are all part of Self.

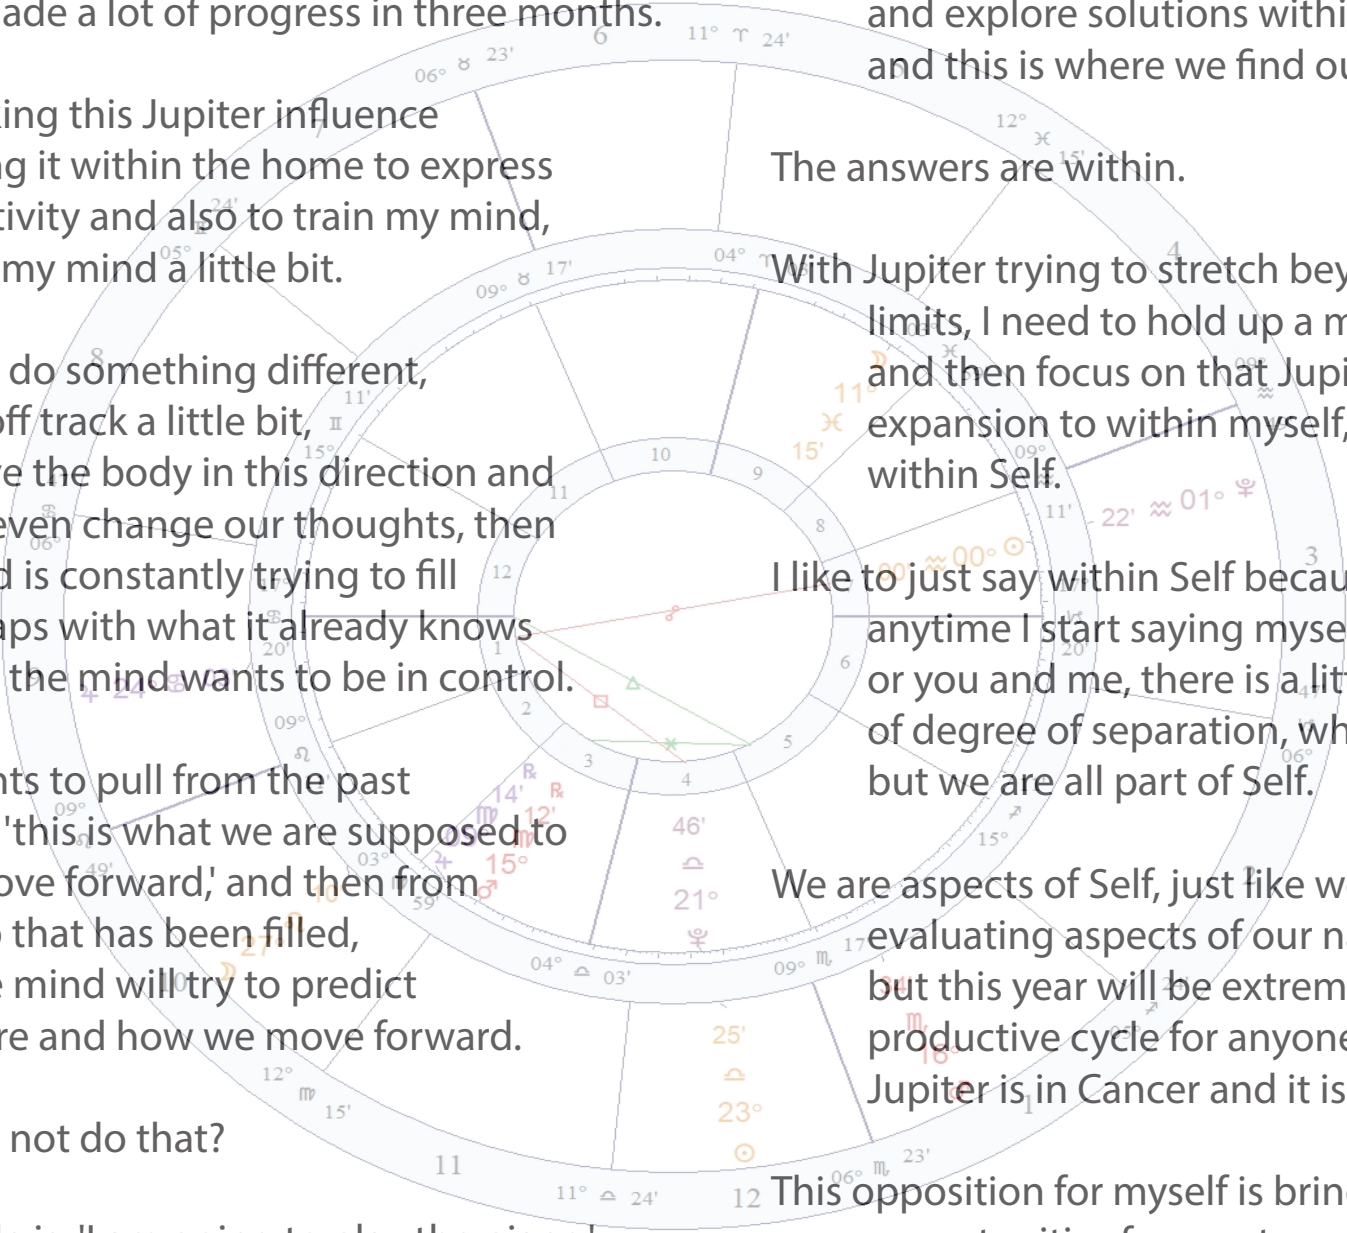

We are aspects of Self, just like we are even evaluating aspects of our natal chart, but this year will be extremely productive cycle for anyone because Jupiter is in Cancer and it is exalted.

This opposition for myself is bringing forth opportunities for great growth and I want to be able to look back in June 2026 to see how I utilize Jupiter in Cancer before it moves into Leo.

Let us talk about Jupiter square Pluto.

These energies carry me higher and farther, but first of all, what is a square?

Square means to take action.

Opposition means Jupiter and my Sun need to cooperate together, they are playing tug of war.

A square provides the motivation and it is going to make me take action and make changes.

I am going to have to put forth some effort and some determination.

In fact, I woke up very confused and I woke myself up breathing deep.

All that was fine, but it was more like,
'Whoa! Where did my consciousness go?'

The dream was so vivid and because dreams are real, our consciousness take us there, I could remember all the details of my dream.

Fourth house is home of Cancer and my natal Pluto is in fourth house which is private life and also considered the mother house.

Sometimes details are cloudy when we wake up from dreams, but not this one so I explored something within me that I could link to Pluto and Jupiter if I want to use symbols.

Fifth house is father house and fourth house is mother house.

If we talk about the lower plane, which is the subjective plane, this is the subconscious realm and the top half, is the objective realm, the conscious realm.

I learned a little bit about myself whether I know it or not.

Going back to Jupiter square Pluto, there is also going to be the aspect of myself that will involve projects that need to be repaired or rebuild.

This is our subjective awareness at the bottom and then top half is objective awareness, so people will come into our life from the top half and reflect to us aspects of self,
so that we can identify that within us
and have realizations that will cause us to expand our awareness.

This can include our thoughts,
we transmute our thoughts.

Jupiter is going to expand within my subconsciousness and create that space where I can identify these aspects, but I just need to be careful with of how Pluto represents compulsion and obsessions.

That is how we all grow together.

Within the subjective plane, the nadir is the lowest point in the chart and it is the bottom of the subconscious, symbolically.

Pluto is my source of power and when I aim to improve, I do not need to become so obsessed or compulsive about it.

I have Pluto as my nadir and it is in the bottom half of my subconscious and I have Jupiter square natal Pluto.

Notice that my Sun transits lined up with natal Pluto and my natal Sun is lined up with transit Pluto.

Jupiter is working with Pluto to create this influence, this flux of energy, to carry me higher and further than usual.

There is some strong energies that are present within when me, flowing through me right now and I am trying to make the most of it every day.

I actually had a very vivid dream the other night, which most people would consider a nightmare, but for me, it was more like an adventure.

I was in a very dark place and the more I think about this dream, I was exploring deep, dark, dark aspects within myself.

I am spending time with family more, especially with transit Mars in fifth house, spending time with this whole quadrant.

This is the family development quadrant and I have Mars here so I focus my attention and energy towards family development, especially at this time of the year.

I can take advantage of these energies, but in the seventh house, this is the relationship house and it is home of Libra, I can focus a lot of the influence of transit Pluto flowing through me reflecting off my natal Sun.

My relationships are really good with my home life, which will ripple out and correspond with the community.

I primarily wanted to just talk about how everyone can find their Jupiter within their chart and it is going to be in their Cancer house.

Transit Jupiter is in Cancer and then we can focus on being receptive to the higher influences.

Notice how our mind will focus on denials and wrong, even if we accept we are in abundant.

Can we hold that focus, that we are abundant in all moments?

The mind does not want to because the mind is trying to fill in gaps.

Since we are reflections of the Creator, or Emanations, when we look in a mirror, everything is kind of backwards, it is flipped.

Well, we are experiencing the same thing, so if we can just flip our thought from lack to abundance and focus, tune in on abundance in all moments, our inner world will change, which will expand our sphere of consciousness and our outer world will change, our perception will change.

We will begin to realize that we are in reception, not contracting and focusing on lack.

That is why we have to watch where our Moon is on our natal chart because Moon represents emotions, past, and habits.

If we do not use our memory correctly, then our mind will pull from our past memories and try to fill in the gaps in this present moment.

What if we just are receptive, in all moments.

What if we practice focusing on our breath and the space within ourself and quiet the mind.

The mind gets uncomfortable, but it takes practice, because the magic happens in between breaths.

That is symbolic activity.

When we breathe in and breathe out, that is activity and that is energy moving, but that space in between, that is very still in between breaths, that is where the magic happens.

That is where we want to be and that is what we are really seeking for, inner peace, whether we know it or not.

I really enjoy astrology because it steps down to the to the personality layer.

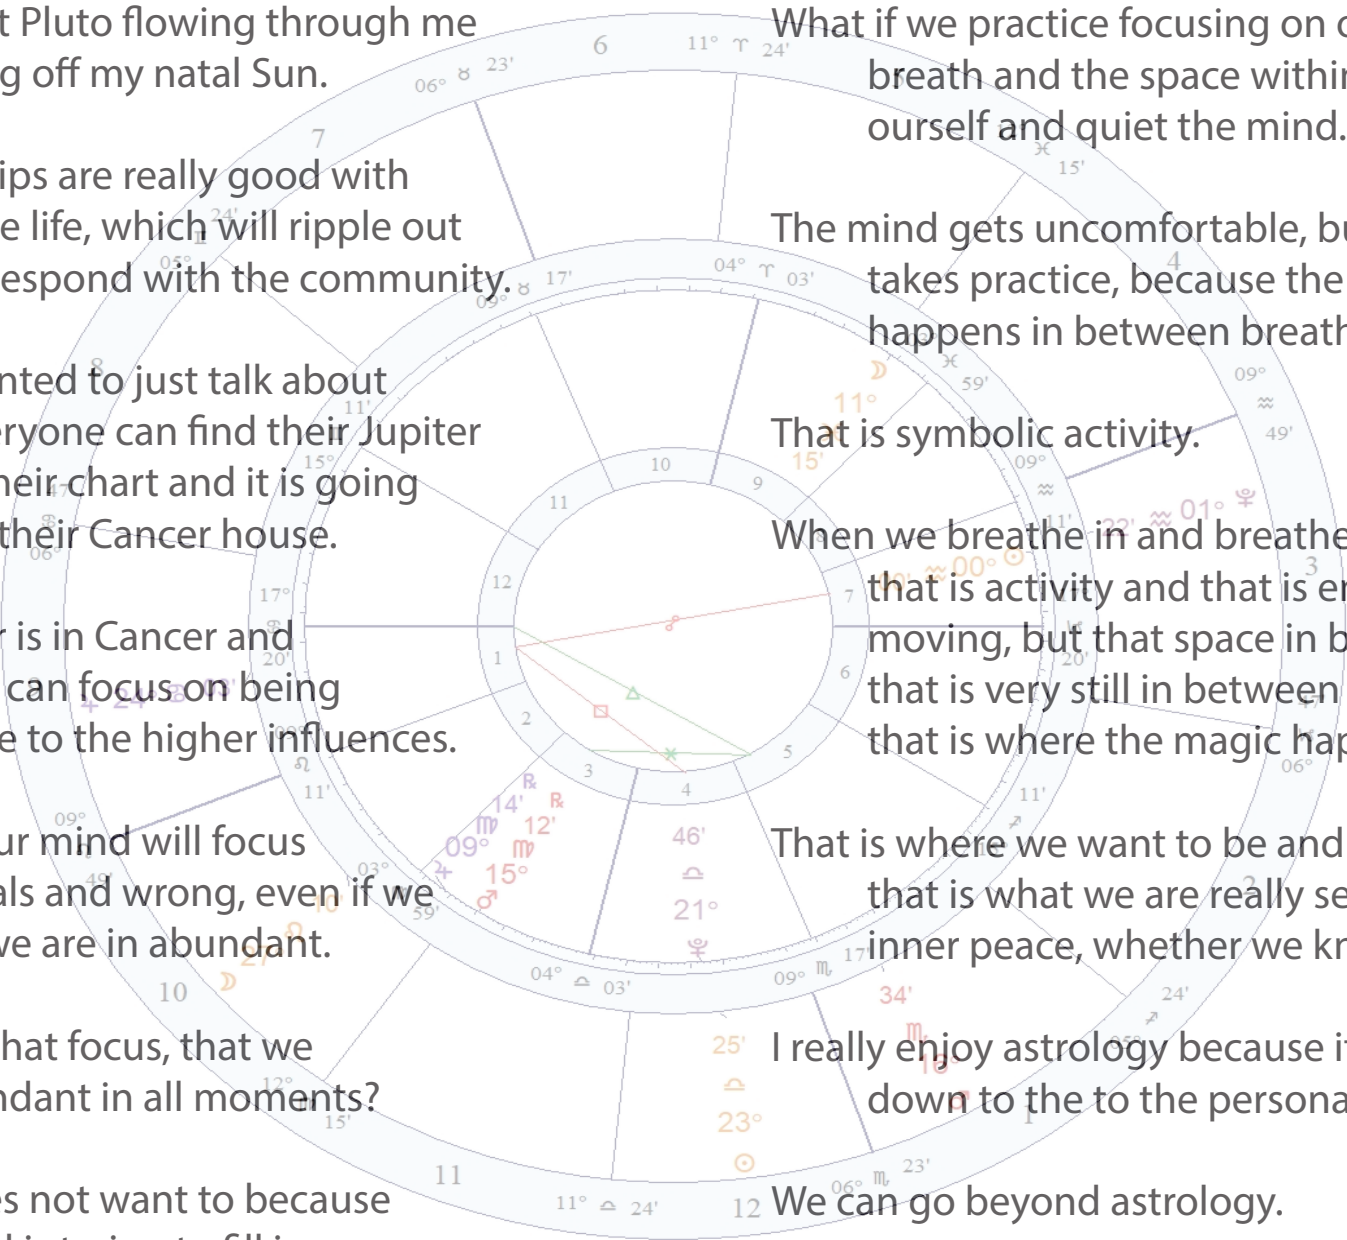

We can go beyond astrology.

We can just know we are Creator.

I was quiet and held space with that statement, because a lot of us will not accept that statement.

Why?

Why will we not accept that we are Creator, the 'I Am that I Am', the image of Creator, the image of God.

I encourage to cause the mind to change, to do it differently, to have the mind
try to keep up with the body.

The body is going to reflect how the mind perceives our body.

The body is going to talk to us.

That will be all for now,
just remember that we are whole,
even though we are playing in duality.

It is okay to play in duality, but to know thyself, accept thyself and become the Creator,
all that means is that we are abundant in all moments.

We are love.

We are able to see through appearances which appear to be wrong, but we have to broaden our perspective and our awareness to be able to see it from another degree instead of looking at it linear, so we have to be able to come at it this way.

Alright, that is all.
